The Truth About Furniture Polish

Today's furniture is made mostly of material that is relatively non-porous. If an old fashioned furniture polish, containing silicone and wax, is used on a non-porous surface, the wax and silicone have no place to go! They merely get smeared around the surface, mostly absorbed into the polishing cloth and with any luck a small amount gets left on the furniture surface to dry out, turn dull, yellow and start to attract dirt and buildup. Not the best sounding way to dust, clean, beautify and protect valuable furniture.

Enter CITRA GLOSS. A unique cleaning, dusting and polishing aerosol developed for today's non-porous furniture surfaces. The special formula contains no silicone or wax. It features just the right amount of citrus terpene, cleaning conditioners and polishing oils to clean and leave surfaces glossy, fingerprint free and with no chance of sticky, oily buildup. Helps surfaces stay clean longer.
